

Re-enact SA Club Charter

Who are we?

We are a group of First and Second World War enthusiasts based in South Australia who host and participate in historical re-enactments. We seek to commemorate and build understanding of the events of the First and Second World Wars, with a particular focus on the experiences of the front-line soldier

Our mission

To preserve world war history and keep it alive, for this generation and the next

How we achieve this

- We participate in tactical combat re-enactments, public displays, film work, commemorative ceremonies, community events and educational programs
- Assemble authentic uniforms and equipment
- Learn authentic drills, field craft and period customs
- Create authentic experiences to better appreciate the experiences of those involved in the conflict
- Regularly meet to share knowledge and learn from each other
- Provide a place for likeminded people to interact
- Honour the memory of family members involved in the conflict
- Create a hobby that is interesting, fun and rewarding

How we conduct ourselves (behaviours)

- We hold ourselves to high standards of behaviour
- We are highly professional, reliable and act with integrity
- Being respectful of each other, and of those involved in the conflict
- Very welcoming of new members and supporting them to make it easy to get started
- Giving everyone an opportunity to be heard
- Accepting of new ideas and being willing to change
- Showing positivity and enthusiasm to get involved in meetings and events
- Developing camaraderie with fellow club members
- Communicate regularly, ensuring information is clear, concise, inclusive and courteous
